The German Government has expressed its intention to make lifelong ongoing payments to victims of National Socialism whose claims have been approved.

Approximately 17% of payments made pursuant to the Federal Compensation Act and the Federal Restitution Act are disbursed to individuals who live in Germany, and approximately 40% to individuals who live in Israel; the remaining proportion is disbursed to individuals who live elsewhere. Approximately 15% of ongoing payments made pursuant to the Federal Compensation Act are disbursed to individuals who live in Germany, approximately 85% of ongoing payments are disbursed to individuals who live abroad.

During the period from 1 October 1953 to 31 December 1987, 4,384,138 applications for compensation were submitted pursuant to the Additional Federal Compensation Act of 18 September 1953 (Federal Law Gazette I p. 1387), the Federal Compensation Act of 29 June 1956 (Federal Law Gazette I p. 559) and the Final Federal Compensation Act of 14 September 1965 (Federal Law Gazette I p. 1315). These applications were processed as follows:

Approved	2,014,142
Denied	1,246,571
Otherwise processed (e.g. application withdrawn)	1,123,425

No statistical record is kept of the total number of applicants. This number is, however, not identical to the number of applications that are submitted. Pursuant to information provided by the Länder – who are responsible for implementing the Federal Compensation Act – on average, every applicant submitted more than one application. The exact number of claims that were submitted by each individual claimant cannot be determined. The number of applications, and of applications processed, from 1 January 1988 to date is comparatively small; the Länder are therefore no longer keeping a statistical record of this figure.

Except for an insignificant, small number of cases, compensation pursuant to the Federal Restitution Act has been completed.

The above table does not include other payments – the individual amounts of which cannot be exactly determined – totalling several billion euros that were made pursuant to other directives, e.g. the Act on Social Insurance Pensions for Victims of National Socialism, the Federal Act on Compensation for National Socialist Injustice through War Disablement and Survivors' Pensions and the General Act Regulating Compensation for War-induced Losses.

The Foundation for Remembrance, Responsibility and the Future has not made any ongoing compensation payments; it has only made one-off payments. The Foundation received funding totalling EUR 5.1 billion. Of this, the Federal Government provided the EUR 2.556 billion recorded in the table above. The remainder came from German companies that participated in the German Economy Foundation Initiative. By the time the last payments were made in 2007, the Foundation, which was set up to help forced labourers and other victims of National Socialism, had disbursed a total of more than EUR 4.7 billion to around 1.7 million victims of National Socialism, in particular forced labourers, who were entitled to support.
